Moving Administrative Justice Forward

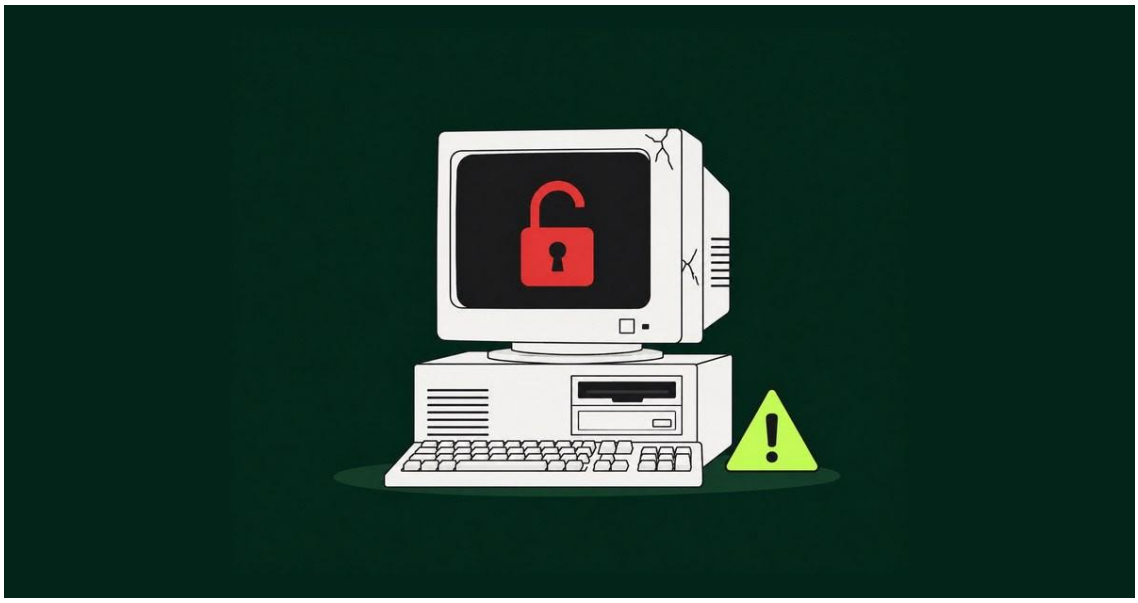

What does responsible modernization look like for administrative justice?

At NAALJ 2026, we connected with judges and agency leaders about AI, rising caseloads, and the systems slowing them down.

Here’s what we heard and how those conversations are shaping our approach to CaseHub.

Your Old System Still Works. But Is It Safe?

The software you’re hesitant to replace could be the risk you can’t afford to ignore. From missing security patches to fragile workarounds, legacy systems leave more exposed than you might think.
Explore a practical, phased approach to modernization that puts security first without putting operations on hold.

A Silver-Worthy Finish.

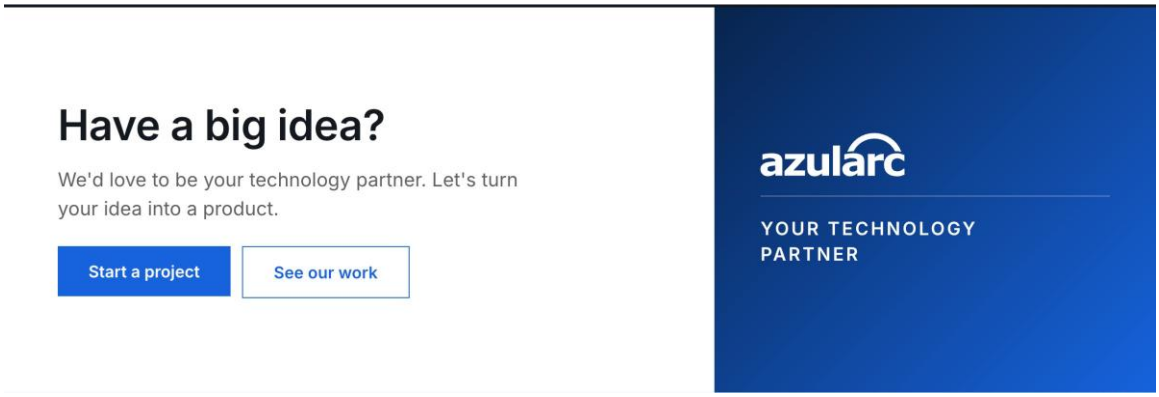

Our work for the Resilient Floor Covering Institute (RFCI) has earned a 2026 Silver Davey Award in the Associations category.

It’s a proud moment for our team and a celebration of our partnership with RFCI.

Great work starts with trust. This one comes with a little silver, too.
